

Campfire Sound Effects Story

about Brad Frey

Inter. 2? 1995

Once there was young man named BRAD. He came to DORION BIBLE CAMP and felt very HAPPY. DORION BIBLE CAMP was his very favourite place. One of his favourite activities was HOCKEY. Whenever he was playing HOCKEY, he was very HAPPY. Even though HOCKEY is a rough sport and most of the other players were bigger than him, he was never FRIGHTENED.

One day BRAD was playing HOCKEY with a beachball at DBC. The CAMPERS were knocking him over and scoring, but it was alright: He was playing HOCKEY and so he was HAPPY. Suddenly, the CAMPERS screamed. They saw something small and furry waddling toward them. No, it wasn't Neil; it was a SKUNK. This was not a HAPPY situation, but BRAD wasn't FRIGHTENED at all.

However, JESSICA was; she was screaming hysterically. This disturbed the SKUNK so much that it took aim and blasted her. Poor JESSICA. Now she really stank. She was not HAPPY. BRAD was furious. "How dare you spray my fellow high-school student?" he roared in his manly voice. But what was he going to do? He knew a lot about HOCKEY, but not much about battling SKUNKs.

Suddenly he remembered that he had a secret weapon with him. He threw his LITTLE SISTER at the SKUNK which was so FRIGHTENED that it sprayed again. His LITTLE SISTER was not very HAPPY, but the CAMPERS were, because BRAD used his HOCKEY stick to flip the SKUNK like a puck into the lake.

After that everyone at DBC lived happily ever after, except for JESSICA and BRAD's LITTLE SISTER who spent the rest of the week stinking together in Pinecone Cottage.