

“Mad-lib” Story
about Dave Marshall
1994

Once there was a man named Dave Marshall. He was born in the town of ESPANOLA, Ontario. He wanted to join a gang of BIKERS and so he bought himself a HARLEY-DAVIDSON. Soon he was a full fledged MEMBER OF THE GANG and rode all over North America.

But Dave was dissatisfied with his LIFE and so one day in Thunder Bay he went into a CHURCH BUILDING and talked with the PASTOR. Soon afterward Dave became a Christian and gave his HEART to the Lord.

Next Dave went to Dorion Bible Camp and became a COUNSELLOR for the summer.

In the Fall Dave headed off to Saskatchewan and became a STUDENT at Briercrest Bible College. First he got a HAIRCUT and started wearing a TIE. It was there Dave decided to become a MISSIONARY.

During the summers Dave still worked at Dorion Bible Camp even though he had problems with his BACK and sometimes had to skip TEAM time and COOKOUT. However, it was usually okay as long as he could dangle a FISHING LINE over the side of his canoe.

For two years Dave served the Lord aboard something called the Doulos. This was a large SHIP full of CHRISTIANs from all over the world.

Dave was thinking about going to Alaska, but continued to experience pain in his SPINE. So instead he became Dorion's ASSISTANT DIRECTOR. It sure is nice to see him driving his DIESEL TRUCK around here. We hope that whatever happens Dave will always consider Dorion Bible Camp his HOME.
