

Campfire Sound Effects Story

about Neil E. Dainio III, Senior? 1995

Once there was young man named NEIL. He came to DORION BIBLE CAMP and felt very HAPPY. DORION BIBLE CAMP was his very favourite place. He really liked all the CAMPERS; he even liked some of the LADY COUNSELLORS. A few of the LADY COUNSELLORS even liked him, mainly because NEIL was not only HAPPY but BRAVE and never AFRAID. And one night at DBC NEIL proved just how BRAVE he was.

NEIL was in his little cabin, trying to SLEEP, when he heard a noise: it sounded like the CAMPERS PILLOWFIGHTING. How could he SLEEP with all that racket? NEIL was not HAPPY. He got out of bed, grabbed his big black flashlight and headed down the field. As he neared the girls' cabins, he realized it wasn't the CAMPERS who were PILLOWFIGHTING; it was the LADY COUNSELLORS. NEIL was now very unHAPPY! Where was Carol? There she was in the middle, leading the whole thing! Now NEIL was extremely unHAPPY! But before he could do anything about it, he heard a loud thudding noise. At first he thought it was the pillows or perhaps the unsupervised CAMPERS jumping around in their cabins instead of SLEEPing. But suddenly he saw it coming through the bush: GINGER THE CAT twelve feet tall! The LADY COUNSELLORS all screamed. They were so AFRAID! They'd never seen anything like this at DBC before.

GINGER jumped at Erin and swallowed her in one gulp. A couple of bites later and Paula was gone. By this time most of the LADY COUNSELLORS had even stopped PILLOWFIGHTING. What would NEIL do? He was very BRAVE but not particularly brilliant. But he really wanted to save the LADY COUNSELLORS and even some of the CAMPERS. Suddenly he had a brilliant inspiration: he ran back to his little cabin in the woods and got his TELESCOPE, you know, the TELESCOPE he used to use to teach Astronomy class. Now he was feeling very BRAVE! NEIL took the TELESCOPE, looked through the wrong end, as occasionally he had done in Astronomy class, but didn't like to tell anyone. Now GINGER was very small. NEIL took his baby finger and bopped GINGER on the head. GINGER coughed and out came Erin and Paula, even though they were now kind of yukky. GINGER was so AFRAID of the BRAVE NEIL that he ran off into the woods never to be seen again. The LADY COUNSELLORS surrounded NEIL and smothered him with handshakes. The CAMPERS came out of their cabins to see what was happening and there was NEIL clutching his TELESCOPE being carried around by Carly and Julia. But they had to put him down as he was AFRAID of heights. Now everyone at DBC was HAPPY.

Meanwhile, in his hutch behind Elaine's, Lapinsky was chewing on a radioactive carrot.
