

Revised Staff Policies Summer '87

4. Awards Supper (The Prom) Traditionally a "dress up" affair is held on the final evening of camp. Be sure your campers' preparations are not so excessive as to cause neglect to your own appearance. Yes, you need a date (but ask him/her yourself). Counsellors have the privilege of washing the dishes slowly after the meal.
5. Bookstore (Staff Library) Please be careful with the dating books as they become dog-eared from overuse. A camp t-shirt awaits each new staff member (ten for Joe).
9. Camper relationships Because you are here to serve the campers, a minimum of social contact will be permitted. Therefore, only one "special" camper is allowed per staff member per week (two during Primary: the little fatheads are small).
11. Clean Grounds To be used in the preparation of all coffee. (Re. field litter: that's Elaine's job.)
13. Coffee Breaks During all day coffee break an optional fifteen minute "camper break" will be provided. Don't worry about stacking dishes neatly after snacks; that's Elaine's job.
14. Credit No cash is to be used in the bookstore or tukshop. Instead, a credit system involving a special mark on the forehead and wrist is to be used. (The purpose of introducing this system is to hasten the return of Christ.)
16. Dating No on grounds dating is permitted between staff members. (See "Camper Relationships and "Offtime"). Exceptions: The Prom and All Camp Pillowfight.
20. Emergencies In the event of a coffee or tuk shortage, a blown fuse in a girls' cabin or a freezing swimguard, you will hear the bell ringing and ringing and ringing and ringing and ringing. Follow emergency procedure posted on bulletin board underneath two newspaper clipping and year-old letter. Don't shower or shave during emergencies. Andy is never to be notified in advance of a drill. (He needs some excitement.)
21. End of Camp That's Elaine's job.
22. Equipment Footballs and baseball bats are to be stored in the ditch. Badminton racquets are to be left on the court for easy location. Birdies are kept on the dining hall roof. Volleyballs and soccer balls are stored in the lake.
25. Laundry Staff members are asked to bring any socks or underwear they wish never to see again to the laundry by 9:15 a.m.. (See "Lotteries".)

27. Music Country Music, “Christian” or otherwise, is not permitted formally or informally for campers or staff. All Jimmy Swaggart t-shirts should be left at home. (J.S.'s rockabilly gospel tunes may be played in moderation.)
29. Office To be manned by at least five (5) on-duty counsellors during all daylight hours to keep Andy company. However, please stay out during Andy's napbreaks.
31. Records Each staff member is responsible to keep records, but not to play them too loudly after 2 a.m.. (Cassettes are also acceptable.)
33. Remuneration All summer staff are to receive a 100% raise commencing Summer ‘87.
40. Time Off Time off from all day coffee break is to be spent at the Dorion Inn to prevent total detachment from and lack of compassion for the world. If you can arrange an early morning ride, Andy won't have to jog up there anymore.

New Policies

- Cookout Each staff member is responsible to ensure that he has assigned a sufficient number of campers to prepare his hotdogs. Female staff are reminded not to use the dining hall fireplace for cookout. Please, dump all leftovers in the dining hall for disposal. (See Misc. below.)
- Lotteries With the success of Lottowash and Lottoscape, and in an attempt to keep up with the times, all staff should be prepared to participate in the following activities: Lottoprayer, Lottocounsel, Lottolaundry (otherwise known as Lottosocks), Lottoshower, Lottotestimony, Lottofreeze (Swim Duty), Lottocookout and Lottodate.
- Marvellouses All members of the Marvellous family are welcome at all Camp functions and are to be accorded the respect due their station.
- Misc. That's Elaine's job.
- Pencils Pencils are stored with your clean socks. (See “Laundry”.)
- Pic Campers and staff who attend camp for twenty years will be awarded a year's supply of Pic.
- Stoves Be enthusiastic.

Policies for Letters Previously Neglected

Gooch	All staff members are to be thoroughly instructed in all aspects of Goochlore. The Life and Crimes of Edward J. Gooch is required reading for all new staff and is recommended for evening reading to the campers. Gooch Eve is to be observed every Friday night of Inter. II without fail.
Horse Manure	Conveniently located just about everywhere on the camp grounds, this all-purpose material may be used for softball bases, extra weight in pillowfights, crafts, fair events and extreme cases of discipline.
Illness	Once thought to be the major cause of sickness, illness has now been shown to be nonexistent at camp. A lack of health has now been diagnosed as the major problem and consequently has been declared out of bounds for all staff (except during cookout, swim duty or Andy's Half Hour).
James, Andy	As he is a well-EDucatED and spiritually learnED man, Andy is always to be respectED, well-fED and never neglectED or exasperatED by exaggeratED tales of EDifices once thought to be hauntED.
Nuclear Attack	See "Emergencies" and panic. Last leaving cabin turns off lights.
Quiz	Chapel quiz winners will be decided by lottery among staff before each camp week. Then those watching for first standing are to choose the appropriate campers rather than their own, as in current practice.
Ugly	No kitchen girl may be ugly.
X-acto Knives	Not to be used on wiener sticks by accident-prone counsellors.
Yankees	All Americans are to be accorded the respect due their station. (See "Marvellouses".)
Zelda	T.E.J.!

Only staff with five years or more seniority are to request special privileges!!
